All available planning enforcement reports, notices and accompanying correspondence for the known as Rose Cottage, Foundry Lane, Horton SL3 9PD. Confirmation of the outcome of all relevant enquiries, and details of any fines imposed/ legal action taken would also be appreciated. We believe records may also be filed under "The Stables", Foundry Lane and "Land to the rear of Rose Cottagesite .

Response:

Planning Enforcement has investigated the site for alleged planning breaches 5 times. Details are below:

1) In 2000 the Council received a complaint claiming there were caravans on site and there were construction of stables and garages. This was investigated and the complaint was not founded.

2) In 2003 the Council received a complaint about outbuildings, steel entrance gates and posts being erected without planning permission. This was investigated and the complaint was founded. Retrospective planning permission was applied for and allowed (04/00105).

3) In 2008 the Council received a complaint about waste on site. This complaint was founded. The matter was resolved as the waste was cleared and drainage created.

4) In 2008 the Council received a complaint about an unauthorised change of use of the stable to residential use. This was investigated and the complaint was not founded.

5) In 2009 the Council received a complaint about a mobile home on site being used for residential use. This was investigated and the complaint was not founded.
