I am writing in response to your Information request:

ER66234

Please disclose for each of the past financial years, including 2013/14, how much Section 106 money has been returned to developers for not being spent within the set period of time. For the same time period, please disclose how much Section 106 money was received by the Royal Borough. For the end of each of the past five financial years, please disclose how much Section 106 money was 'unspent' and how much Section 106 money was 'unallocated'.

Response: This is a Section 17 Refusal Notice. S21 (Information is available by other means) exemption applies. This information can be found on the RBWM website. Please follow the link provided
