Further to your Information request FOI64053, please find your questions and our responses below:

- What is the longest waiting time (in days) for a parking permit in your council area?

Response: 10 Days

- How much do you/did you charge for a residential parking permit in your area 2008, 2011, and this year (2012)? Please provide an average for each year specified.

Response: In 2012 there are 3012 permits issued currently; Permit 1 2283 x £20 = £45660 and Permit 2 729 x £40 = £29160. The average cost is therefore £24.84 (£74820/3012). Permits are issued free of charge to applicants over 60 and disabled but a separate record is not kept. The same figure would apply to 2011 as the ratio of permits 1:2 would be very similar. In 2008 the figure would be £18.63 as the permits at that time cost £15 and £30 respectively.

- What is the cost in and location of the most expensive residential parking permit in your council area?

Response: The most expensive resident permit costs £40. This applies to all areas.

- How much money was generated in your council area from residential parking permits in 2011?

Response: £131,824

- Has your council increased the number of parking zones in the past 12 months? (Yes or No)

Response: Yes

- How many parking enforcement officers (i.e. parking attendants) does your council employ this year (2012), and how many did your council employ in 2011 and 2008? Please provide a number for each year specified.

Response: 2012 = 36, 2011 = 42 and 2008 = 51
