Was domiciliary care provision the subject of a tender process?

Response: Yes.

If yes, confirm which providers were awarded contracts; the number of referrals.

Response: Radian, Oxford House, Leonard Cheshire, Devere, Enara, Delight, Crossroads, Carewatch and Bluebird. Approximately 400 people from all client groups are referred and allocated domiciliary care services at any one time.

Details of the providers to which referrals were made.

Response: All of the above and other providers on a spot basis.

How many service users were in receipt of Supported Living and registrable Domiciliary Care Services and of those how many received both services.

Response: Approximately 52 adults with learning disabilities are in receipt of supported living services from this contract.
Approximately 396 people from all client groups are in receipt of domiciliary care services at any one time.
People with learning disabilities in supported living are unlikely to receive additional domiciliary care services, unless on a direct payment. There are unlikely to be more than ten people in receipt of additional domicically care services.
