Further to your Information request FOI65614 please find your questions and our responses below:

- How many of the families in the Troubled Families programme had a family member involved in the riots in 2011.
  None to our knowledge
- From where has the council provided the match funding for the Troubled Families programme.
  Revenue Budget
- What funding for what purposes has come for the Troubled Families programme from public, voluntary and statutory organisations.
  The main sources of funding have come from central government as per Troubled Families Programme and from the Royal Borough of Winsor and Maidenhead. Local partners have been actively involved in the programme and the Community Safety Team has seconded a full time Community Warded to the team. Funding has recently been secured from the local Clinical Commissioning Group for a part time Health post. Other partners have also provided officer time eg Police and Housing Associations to support the project and work with the RBWM to address referrals and family plans.
- How many “turned around” families have subsequently been involved in crime and/or anti social behaviour.
  None
- How many “turned around” families have a family member subsequently regularly skipping school or have been excluded.
  None
- How many of the “turned around” families have adults remaining on workless benefits and how many “tuned around” families retain a family member with an alcohol or drug addiction.
  Workless benefits: 5
  Drug/Alcohol addiction: 0
- What evaluation has been undertaken of the Troubled Families Programme locally. Please provide a copy of the evaluation.
  The team uses a variety of methods to evaluate progress on individual families on a monthly basis. The report included is the most recent formal report to the Council Cabinet, which provides for evaluation.
- What analysis has been done locally of the numbers of Troubled Families meeting the criteria for intervention in the Troubled Families programme.
  Information is gathered from the following agencies to determine families that meet our criteria: Job Centre Plus, Education Welfare Service, Youth Offending Team, Community Safety Team, Thames Valley Police, Social Care.
