Regarding schools that are deemed to be failing/underperforming I would like these statistics for the last 2 academic years unless stated otherwise:

How many schools have been served with a Warning Notice by RBWM during the period stated? 1

What were the circumstances that caused the LA to issue such a notice? The LA issued the Warning Notice following a review of the school by our School Improvement Team.

How long were the warning notices in place in each school? The Warning Notice was in place for a period of eight weeks.

What were the outcomes for the schools - eg did they retain there head teacher and or governors, did they become academies and who sponsored them? No changes to the head teacher or the governors were required by the Warning Notice.

How many schools currently have an Interim executive board of governors? 1

Under what circumstances were they implemented? School went into special measures

Did any schools retain their original heads? The school with an IEB did not retain the original Headteacher

How many schools are currently regarded as in danger of dropping a grade in future Ofsted inspections by the LA? 6

How many schools are currently in special measures or requiring improvement by Ofsted? 15

How many of these schools were previously identified by the LA and then placed on a warning notice? 0

Are there any minutes of meetings held by the LA available regarding discussions about the current or future management of Bisham CE Primary School? No

Are there any records of meetings held between governor at Bisham school and LA officers? Yes
What was the purpose of such meetings? To consider and resolve a complaint received by the LA.
