I am writing to respond to your request.

1. What new measures are you putting in place to meet demand for: (a) primary places RBWM has expanded several schools in recent years, most of which are new build for a permanent expansion. One or two are bulge classes only. (b) secondary places. We are just beginning on an programme of expansion of secondary schools across the borough, and are considering whether or not we shall need a new school in the future.

2. When pupil numbers hit their peak how big will your biggest primary schools be in terms of (a) pupil numbers 420 (b) number of forms of entry 2FE for primary, and 3FE for Junior.

3. When pupil numbers hit their peak how big will your biggest secondary schools be in terms of (a) pupil numbers circa 1800 (b) number of forms of entry 9FE
